Office of the R.L.A.

Indian Telegraphs Act, 1885.

Execution of agreement with the Central Government for placing underground cables.

The legal position has been fully considered in R.L.A's opinion No.4286, dated the 25th May 1942. Attention of the Public Works Department is invited to para 3 of the said opinion confirmed by R.L.A's opinion No.5942, dated 6th September 1943 wherein it is pointed out that neither an agreement nor rent can be demanded from the Central Government for placing underground cables or for erecting poles on property vesting in the Provincial Government.
